

Air Zero G General Conditions of Sale

www.airZeroG.com information

Avico, in charge of Air Zero G flight marketing, provides the information content on this site and while we endeavor to keep the information up to date and correct, we reserve ourselves the right to change the contents at any time, without previous notice.

Bookings, fares and payments

Your reservation is confirmed when you receive an email containing reservation reference number and all of the detail of your reservation.

All fares are shown inclusive of taxes, including VAT.

To pay online you will need a debit or credit card. The payment will be debited immediately from the card. Such payments are secured by data encryption.

Payment of Air Zero G flights can also be performed by wire transfer.

Respect of payment dates is mandatory. Non respect of payment dates can be considered as a cancellation by the customer. Its booking can be cancelled accordingly, and cancellation fees applied.

Air Zero G General Conditions of Flight

Air Zero G flights and passenger transportation are performed in accordance with General Conditions of Flight, available on our website.

Privacy protection

Avico is committed to safeguarding your privacy online.

All personal data transmitted to Air Zero G, Avico and/or Novespace, is subjected to law no. 78-17 of 6 January 1978 relating to the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data. The user is thereby entitled to access, rectify, modify and delete personal data concerning him/herself and he/she may exert this right at any moment by writing to:

Avico, 33 avenue de Wagram, 75017 Paris

Image rights

Novespace, Air Zero G and A310 ZERO-G names and brands cannot be used for any commercial purpose. Same rule applies for pictures issued from www.AirZeroG.com website or shot on board Air Zero G flight.

Applicable Law and courts of Jurisdiction

The present terms of use and Conditions are governed exclusively by French Law.

If the amiable negotiations fail any such disputes that arise from the non observation of the present conditions shall be settled by the Paris courts which alone shall have jurisdiction.